

Ben Cobos is journeyman electrician with 9 years of experience in the trade. He enjoys playing music on various instruments and spending time with his family. Ben chose Mister Sparky for its service and he knows every customer will have a piece of mind knowingly that the issue will be solved correctly with excessive training that the company provides. He is inspired every day by his growing family.

“Where words fail, music speaks.” -Hans Christian Anderson