

Bryan Martinez is the operations manager at Mister Sparky with over 100 hours off business courses completed with 5 years of on the job training. Prior to this he spent 5 years in the air force; leading teams in Afghanistan and running the base armory. Bryan enjoys spending time with his wife and 3 kids, traveling the world, watching sports and being outdoors! He chose Mister Sparky because it allows him to institute a military mindset into running the business and not only promote the highest degree of customer service but to also take pride into employee relationships. Bryan is always going to be inspired by the legacy he leaves behind.
