

Joshua Jenkins is the service manager at mister sparky with 12 years' experience in the trade. He has accomplished receiving certificates in NCCER PV Install and Design as well as his master electrician license. Joshua is consistently seeking to expand his knowledge and skill base to better himself and his family. In his spare time, he has many hobbies, few in which include technology and working on cars! He chose Mister Sparky because he has witnessed the company and its employees not only go above and beyond for its consumers, but also within its team members. Over the years he has seen numerous sacrifices for the good of the consumer and the employees that effects the company and his co workers both long and short termed. He believes that the willingness to sacrifice for others is the greatest sign of true compassion and love; Joshua contributes this in many small ways, taking tremendous amount of pride in ensuring that his installation department bares the full weight of the customer service experience for the betterment of our consumers lives. His greatest motivation is serving god and furthering his kingdom.

“You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of god, you will receive what he has promised.”
