

Shari Martinez is the Administration Manager at Mister Sparky who attended Ashford University and earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in organizational management. Over the past 7 years while working for the company, she has held extensive knowledge on day to day operations, support and human resource management. She enjoys working with people and leading them in ways they can capitalize their strengths as individuals. Shari chose Mister Sparky for its quality in customer satisfaction. Everything the company promotes drives her to be a better employee and team member. At Mister Sparky it is believed that if the employees are happy, it will show through their work ethic and be translated to the customer experience. During her downtime she enjoys traveling the world while sipping on some fine wine and spending time with her husband and children. They are her biggest inspiration and driving force behind the woman she is today.

“Love your Family, work super hard, live your passion”

-Gary Vaynerchuk
